

Photo Credit: Craig Streassnick; Sturt Street Portico

City of Adelaide Local History Group

Other than family history, local history is the closest historical enterprise to the community.

Given that history is too important to be left to historians alone, it is proposed to establish a local history group for the City, to meet regularly to discuss & undertake local history research. All welcome, join the first session on

Tuesday 29 June 2 - 3 pm

The group will be convened by local resident & Flinders historian
Dr David Faber.

Adelaide South West Community Centre (ASWCC)
At Minor Works Building, 22 Stamford Court, Adelaide
8203 7801 aswcc@cityofadelaide.com.au