

History Research Seminars · Semester 1, 2022

Fridays, 11.15 am–12.30 pm

Room 149, Social Sciences South (Bedford Park) / Microsoft Teams

11 March	Associate Professor David Lockwood (University of Adelaide) ‘Decriminalising history: Lai Teck and the Communist Party of Malaya’
18 March	Katharina Döbler ‘Colonialism, fiction, and history: the making of the novel Dein ist das Reich ’ (title TBC)
25 March	Dr Evan Smith (Flinders University) ‘Writing the history of fascism and anti-fascism in Australia’
1 April	Professor Penny Edmonds (Flinders University) ‘Collecting Looerryminer’s “testimony”: the troubled politics of humanitarian witnessing and anti-slavery moments in the Bass Strait islands’
8 April*	Associate Professor Susie Protschky (Deakin University) ‘Rethinking histories of colonial violence, military atrocity and ethnic conflict in Indonesia through war photography’
29 April	Dr Ellen Whitton (Flinders University) ‘Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger: unexpected proponents of realism in British cinema’
6 May	Dr Alessandro Antonello (Flinders University) ‘Boom and bust histories in South Australia’s sea grass meadows’
13 May	Dr Hélène Sirantoine (University of Sydney) ‘Reconquest? The Iberian holy war seen from England (8 th to 13 th century)’
20 May	History Honours students (Flinders University)
27 May	History Honours students (Flinders University)
10 June	Dr Claire Walker (University of Adelaide) ‘Artefacts and exile: the material connections of English nuns’

*Please note that the seminar on 8 April will be held in Room 213, Social Sciences North.

Enquiries: Associate Professor Christine Winter (christine.winter@flinders.edu.au) and
Dr James Kane (james.kane@flinders.edu.au; 82013365)

All are welcome!