

This annual award recognises and celebrates demonstrated records management service excellence by eligible SA teams/groups, new practitioners, researchers, students, volunteers and other individuals.

The award honours the late Bernadette Bean's outstanding contributions to the records management industry and society for over 30 years.

The Records and Information Management Professionals Australasia endorses and supports this award.

Visit the award website at <https://bbrmaward.com> to learn more about Bernadette; and the award purpose and prize format, eligibility criteria, timelines, past winners, contacts and nomination form.

Share a link to this poster and the award website with eligible SA nominees in your team/group, organisation/association or networks via:

- email
- social media sites such as LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter
- your organisation's or association's intranet or internet website
- e-newsletters, collaboration tools and other communication methods.

Nominations are open 1 May to 8 July each year.

Email award enquiries to: enquiries@bbrmaward.com.

