AN INVITATION TO A ONCE IN A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE!

THE CELEBRATION OF THE BICENTENARY OF GEORGE TRAMOUNTANAS-NORTH'S BIRTH!

Dear Members and friends of the Tramountanas-North Association,

This year is the 200th anniversary of George Tramountanas-North's birth and the 180th anniversary of his landing in Adelaide. To celebrate this historic moment the Tramountanas-North Association is arranging a weekend of celebration in October – the weather should be great, the footy should be over and harvest may not have started yet. A great time to catch up with the extended family!

On Saturday the 29th October at 3pm there will an unveiling of newly commissioned busts of George and his wife Lydia at the Migration Museum in Adelaide.

On Sunday 30th we are arranging bus transport for those who wish to accompany us to various sites in Adelaide that are connected to George and Lydia.

The itinerary, as it stands at present, is as follows:

Sunday 10.00am - meet at West Tce Cemetery & view the restored headstone of George & Eliza North

Sunday 11.00am - board bus & travel to Cheltenham Cemetery arrive at 11.15am & view the restored headstone of Hero & Rosina North

Sunday 12.15pm - board the bus & travel to LUNCH (to be arranged) arriving 12.30pm

Sunday 2.30pm - board bus & travel to Maritime Museum Pt Adelaide arrive 2.45pm view the display of the SS Admella where George served as a crew member in 1857 - 1858

Sunday 3.45pm - board bus & travel to St Marys Church Pt Adelaide arrive 3.55pm view where George & Lydia were married on 26th September 1858

Sunday 4.30pm - board bus & travel back to Adelaide City for collection of cars.
