

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

History Department Seminar Series

Semester 2 2022 Mondays, 12.00 noon, Stretton Room

Zoom option: Please click this URL to start or join: <https://adelaide.zoom.us/j/86336149710/>
Passcode: 307944

If you experience difficulty with the link please email tess.watterson@adelaide.edu.au

8 August, Vesna Drapac (University of Adelaide) & Ivan Hrstic (Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences in Zagreb), 'Making Multiculturalism: Croatians and Australian Soccer since 1945'

22 August, David Rafferty (University of Adelaide), 'Coercion and Capital in the Hellenistic Mediterranean'

5 September, Rebekah Harms (University of Adelaide), Pre-Submission Review: 'Building the Innovation Economy: The Development of Science and Technology Policy in South Australia, 1982-2011'

12 September, James Kane (Flinders University), 'Criminal Crucesignati: Punishing Heretics with Yellow Penitential Crosses in Thirteenth-Century Occitania'

17 October, Alex Parsons (University of Adelaide), 'Australian Anglican Horror and Fascination regarding 'the Soviet Experiment' in the 1930s' AND Michael Heim (University of Adelaide), 'Middle class women and the networks of progressive Modernism and social democracy in early 20th century Britain and Australia – The case of Lucy McDougall.'

24 October, Tom Buchanan (University of Adelaide), 'The Australian Student Movement v. Broken Hill Propriety Company, Inc. (BHP): The Battle over Recycling in the 1970s' make history.