

Labour History Society SA (Inc,)

Annual General Meeting

Sunday 18th August Commencing 2.00pm

Box Factory Regent Street South

The Labour History Society of South Australia, Annual General Meeting will be held Sunday 18 August commencing 2.00 pm at the Box Factory, Regent St South.

The President and seven members of the Executive Committee will be elected at the AGM. If you are interested in standing, nominations will be called at the AGM and all candidates must be financial members to be eligible to stand.

Candidates must be nominated and seconded by two financial members, one of whom may be the candidate. The nominations can either be received from the floor or in written form signed by the proposer and the seconder.

The AGM will be followed by a panel presentation by Richard Stone, John Cook and Katie Watkinson on the Rise of the New Right. A Q & A will follow.

We encourage you to attend this very relevant and interesting event and to continue or become financial member of the LHS.
