

The Department of Historical and Classical Studies Research Seminar Series 2024

150 YEARS

Semester Two Speakers:

August 26th

Patricia Sumerling

WW Hughes and the Fraud of Wallaroo and Moonta Mines

September 9th

Brenton Griffin

'Fundamentally Rotten ... and Based on Blasphemy': Representation and Agitation Against Mormonism in Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Australia

September 30th

Kiera Lindsay

Ifs, Buts, and Maybes: Reimagining the Role of Speculation in Historical Method

October 14th

Penny Edmonds

The Curious Colonial Afterlife of the 1837 Select Committee Report on Aborigines: Settler Violence, Anti Slavery and Protection in Port Phillip and NSW

October 28th

Alessandro Antonello

Seagrass Speculation: Finance, Law, and Mapping at South Australia's Coast, 1909 – 1920

November 11th

Rob Foster & Skye Krichauff

The South Australian Frontier and its Legacies

Mondays in Napier 420
12:00pm
Zoom links TBA

make history.