Dorothy 'Puss' Campbell

WW2 Army Nursing Sister

by Janet Scarfe

An exciting new book about the Australian Army Nursing Service in WW2

Copies of the book will be on sale at the special launch price of $35. Credit card and EFT facilities available.

Dorothy Janet Campbell, always known as 'Puss', was one of nearly 3600 women to serve in the Australian Army Nursing Service in WW2. Her wartime service took her to England, Egypt, Palestine, Papua New Guinea, Queensland and back home to Adelaide.

This is a unique study of Australia's army sisters in WW2.

It brings to light for the first time the sisters' lives away from the wards – their travels, sightseeing, friendships and romances. It was recorded in her own daily diary and photographs.

'Her Great Adventure' is a fresh, factual and engaging perspective on Australian army nursing in WW2.
